MDC ELECTIONS

will take place in March. Doll Club members have agreed to stand for election for all executive positions, but nominations from the floor will be open at our March meeting.

If you have never held an executive position, please consider running. Without an active and involved executive, we don't have a club!

DOLL SHOW PUBLICITY

With our show coming up soon, we are asking all members to help with publicity. Please pick up one or more posters at the next meeting and put them up wherever people gather - stores, churches, community centers, etc.

If you don't get to meetings, please call or email Joan for posters.

Out-of-town members will find a poster enclosed with this newsletter. If you need more, please let Joan know, or just photocopy it.

CANADIAN DOLL CLUBS UNITED January 2005

This issue features Victoria miniaturist Jean Day, who makes books, doll clothes kits, photo albums, room boxes and many other "minis", some in micro-miniature scale (1/144"). Can you believe a whole micro-mini chocolaterie? Visit Jean's website and be amazed - <http://jdayminis.com>

Lisa Healy contributed an article on the MDC Minneapolis trip. The Doll Palace in Hanna, Alberta is also featured.

CDCU is looking for doll clubs to sponsor the July and October issues, at $15 per issue.

Getting to Know You:

Leslie von Kleist has been a member for four years. She says, "I've always been interested in dolls, more so over the last 8 years when my husband gave me a doll for Christmas. I collect porcelain dolls. I also collect porcelain and ceramic clowns, resin bears, and glass paperweights. I love all my dolls, but some of my favorites are my baby girl dolls."

Leslie also loves to garden and has been a director in the Transcona Garden Club for 14 years. She makes and sells floral and bridal arrangements, and also works in school age daycare.

Gretta Friesen joined the MDC four years ago this month. Happy anniversary, Gretta!

Gretta says, "Ever since I was a kid I'd put my dolls to bed every night. I collect and do some crocheting when I have time. Some of my favourites are my Anne of Green Gables doll and my Little Women (Jo) dolls as gifts from my husband. I like the Ginny dolls and I'd like more Little Women and Dionne Quintuplet dolls."

Her collection also includes ethnic dolls and some dolls of the world, and "other dolls that may appeal to me - a red-haired doll for example". When she isn't collecting dolls, Gretta crochets, knits, sews, and spends time with her six grandchildren, who all live in Winnipeg.

Sharon Krupinski is a veteran of 12 years with the Manitoba Doll Club. She has volunteered at doll shows for the last 10 years. Sharon collects antiques and has made some dolls, and is currently making teddy bears. Her favourites are "any dolls from the 1840s to 1920s" and she has recently started collecting walkers. She says, "I love my dolls. I enjoy meeting other people who also collect dolls. The Manitoba Doll Club has allowed me to meet very interesting people and I have made numerous friends."

SYLVIA GRANTHAM, our past president and all-round enthusiastic doll maker/dresser/collector, gave a talk at our January meeting on the process of making a porcelain doll. Many of us had no idea how many steps and how much work was involved in making a porcelain doll, from mixing and straining the slip, to sanding and smoothing the greenware, firing, painting and firing again, and assembling the doll.

And that doesn't even count wiggling and dressing!

Thanks to all our "living dolls" for sharing their doll interests with us.

If you haven't yet turned in a "Getting to Know You" sheet, please do - or just write whatever you want to share about your doll collecting and other interests.

Special bonus: two internet patterns for you.

http://www.geocities.com/cindi_lou_who1/KitchenAngel.html

KITCHEN ANGEL also known as Dishtowel Angel

This cute Angel is made from:

One Dishtowel

One Dishcloth

One Potholder

Other supplies needed are matching ribbon and printed poem (below)

I am your Kitchen Angel
I'll watch over all you do,
Baking all those goodies,
And snitching one or two!
And if you ever tire of me,
Or some help is what your wish is,
Just untie my little ribbons,
And I'll help you with the dishes!

Fan fold the dishtowel lengthwise. Fold in half carefully and tie off about 3 inches from the fold with ribbon. This will form the head.

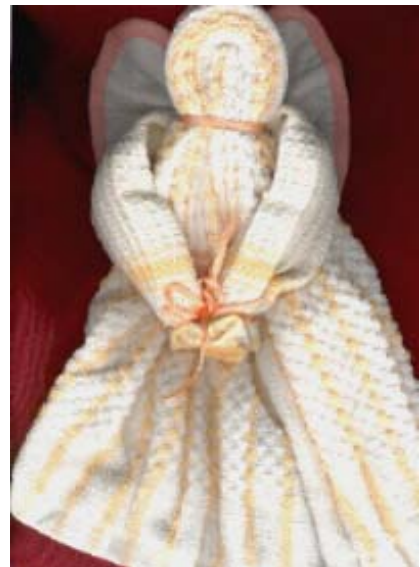

Fan fold the dishcloth. This will be the arms.

Fan fold the potholder with the loop along the top edge. This will form the wings.

Place the potholder on top of the dishcloth and tie off in the center with another piece of ribbon.

Lay the dishtowel on top of the dishcloth and potholder. The potholder should be under the dishcloth. Wrap the ends of the dishcloth around to the front of the towel. Tie each end off with ribbon about an inch from the ends to form the hands.

Once in place tie the ribbons (hands) together and attach the printed poem. I like to print out the poem onto the back of a piece of coordinating wallpaper and place a hole punch in the top left corner for attaching. The wallpaper holds up better than plain paper.
